At the beginning of today's Gospel, Jesus sets the guidelines and principles of ecumenical and interfaith dialogue. The premise for so many years, even centuries, was that those who were not of the Catholic faith were enemies. How many sins against God's love were committed in the name of religion! When we look at our record of sins against Jews, Protestants, Muslims, etc., the list is staggering. We, who were to be the preachers of the gospel of love, became content to isolate all others because they did not possess "the truth."

We almost never saw the good that others were doing or the truth and beauty that they were teaching and preaching. In reality, almost everything one hears in a church, mosque or synagogue is the message of God's love. Since Vatican II all the popes have called us to embrace one another, to learn from one another, and to pray with one another,

How much more richer our church would become when we are in loving and open dialogue with sisters and brothers of other faiths. We have so much to teach one another. Jesus calls us to tear down the walls that separate and divide us and to learn to live together in peace and mutual service.

As we allow Jesus to melt away the vestiges of prejudice in our hearts, we see the kingdom of God more powerfully in our lives and in our churches. As we begin to see everyone as friend and sister and brother, we will know that Jesus is truly present and with us.

And as true as this is in terms of ecumenical dialogue, how much more truthful it is in the internal life of Catholics themselves. We need to learn from, and talk to, one another.

SACRAMENTAL INFORMATION

Baptisms: Baptisms are celebrated twice each month. You need to come into the parish office to register for class. Ideally, preparation should begin during pregnancy. No confirmed dates are given before approval by the priest. In order to avoid disappointments, do not book travel plans with family, godparents, etc., until a confirmed date has been assigned at the conclusion of all stages of preparation. Parents needing annulments of marriages, or those not married, or those not married in the Church, will be assisted in addressing those issues before receiving a Baptismal date.

Marriages: You must be a registered and a supporting member of the parish for at least six months prior to your marriage. The date should not be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: Please call the parish office to inform us of anyone hospitalized, homebound, or in need of the Sacraments.

RCIA

Do you know anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, and possibly becoming a Catholic? Invite them to attend!

RCIA (The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a process whereby an individual becomes a full member of the Catholic Church. Those making this journey come from a variety of backgrounds: some have been baptized, some haven't; some come from other Christian churches or religious beliefs, and others may be Catholics who have decided to complete their initiation into the Church. Whatever their background, all are experiencing the call of God and share a common spiritual journey. Initiation into the Church takes place at the Easter Vigil.

Classes meet every Tuesday, 7:30 - 9:30 PM.

Our Lady Queen of the Apostles Catholic Church

Dear Potential Festival Sponsor:

Plans are now underway for our 25th Annual Fall Festival which will take place Thursday, November 5th through Sunday, November 8th, 2015. Over the past twenty four years, thousands of attendees have built lasting memories. In fact, last year more than three thousand guests enjoyed family fun, community talent, wonderful food, carnival rides, home-made crafts, and endless entertainment. Each year our event attendance has increased. This November, we will continue our tradition again welcoming guests to join us for our exciting fun-filled festival days. This four-day event has become one of the largest annual affairs in the Western Communities. Our goal is to provide a fun, low-cost event for families in our community. Our Lady Queen of the Apostles relies on the generous contributions from community businesses, organizations, and individuals to ensure the success of this family event. Our 2014 sponsors benefited in many different ways from their donation as our event was heavily promoted through local newspapers, social media, in addition to local television and newspaper interviews.

Making the festival successful this year and in the future can only be accomplished through your generosity. We are reaching out to the local community and businesses to help us offset the cost of the festival through sponsorships. There are many different opportunities available for your business, so be sure to check out our sponsorship form that describes in detail each level. You may also donate an item or goods and services for our silent auction. Our Lady Queen of The Apostles is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization and your sponsorship or donation may be tax deductible.

Should you decide to be an underwriter or sponsor for our 25th Annual Fall Festival, please complete the enclosed Sponsorship Form and return it to the attention of Susan Rizzolo, Festival Chairperson, at Our Lady Queen of the Apostles Catholic Church. If you have any questions please feel free to contact Susan Rizzolo at 561-339-4939 (cell) or 561-793-2670 (home).

We look forward to your participation, and thank you in advance for your generous support of our 25th Annual Fall Festival.

Sincerely,

Susan Rizzolo

A/C Problem in Celebration Hall

As Celebration Hall celebrates 20 years of service to our parish, another a/c unit had to be replaced. This unit services our classrooms so as PREP is getting ready to begin, we replaced it last Tuesday. (I'm sure you remember we already replaced the two main units over the last couple of years) In any case, the cost is $9,400 and we could use some help. We have already received a donation for $1,200 and if anyone has the means and would like to assist us, we would certainly appreciate the donation. Once again thank you for your continued generosity

LIFE CHAIN

On Sunday afternoon, October 4th, LIFE CHAIN will again occupy sidewalks. There we will pray and witness on behalf of voiceless fellow citizens - the precious preborns imperiled by surgical mutilation and abortive birth controls. True to Edmund Burke, the horrendous villainy inflicted on the preborns endures because the inaction of "good people" shields it.

Please join us on Sunday October 4th from 2 p.m. until 3 p.m. at Okeechobee and Royal Palm Beach Blvd to be the voice for these little ones.

Fr. Brian Campbell will be beginning a Thursday night series "Studies in the Scriptures" beginning October 1 from 7- 8:30pm in Celebration Hall. Studies in the Scriptures is provided to all parishioners, free of charge. Before getting into individual Bible book studies,

Fr. Campbell will provide an introductory three week series on what Catholic Christians believe about the Word of God and come to an understanding of how we got the Bible as it is today. Come and join us to discover the life changing message of God's Word for you and me. Don't be afraid to bring some tasty treats to share.

CLOWNING FOR JESUS HELP! HELP! HELP! HELP! HELP!

Our 25th Annual Festival is coming soon in November. I need volunteers and costumes for my booth. Confirmation students require community hours and this would be a good time to acquire them in helping out at the festival as well as school. Our booth will have clowning, princess and hero dress-ups, face painting and hair wrapping. During the month of October, I will have classes and take sign-ups after every mass in the pavilion.

Don't forget that Halloween is before the festival and any donated used princess or hero costumes will be greatly appreciated. If you can help me in any way, call or leave a message.
