the amazing parish

As many of you heard from Fr. Andy, earlier this month a group of us led by Fr. Andy attended a conference titled, “The Amazing Parish”. This was an exciting experience for our group and it focused on different facets of parish life that many parishes around the nation need to focus on improving. (Over 1,000 people attended) The majority of this centered on The Sunday Experience relating to music, welcoming, homilies, ministry and many other topics. We are in the process of developing and implementing different initiatives to address many of these topics. Please join us on our journey and watch for weekly updates on our progress. Also please be open to stepping up and joining different ministries as we build for the future and take this journey as a parish family to building Our Lady into “Am Amazing Parish”!

SACRAMENTAL INFORMATION

Baptisms: Congratulations on the decision to baptize your child in the Catholic Faith! We are here to help you with the process. Please call or stop by the parish office and we will be happy to get you started. Travel plans for out of town guests should not be made until a date for the baptism is confirmed by the parish staff. A meeting with a priest may be required. We look forward to hearing from you.

Marriages: Please come by the parish office to start your marriage paperwork. Please allow six months to complete the paperwork. A wedding date cannot be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: We are blessed to have a group of volunteers in our parish who are happy to bring Holy Communion to the sick, the hospitalized and the homebound. Please call the parish office to make arrangements. If you or your loved one would like for a priest to visit with the Sacrament of Anointing, please do not hesitate to call us.

Live in the Resurrection of Christ

Happy Easter! Alleluia! Jesus Christ is RISEN! Alleluia!

Without the Resurrection, all of our Christian belief is for nothing! The Resurrection of Jesus confirms who he said he was, and who he is: Jesus is the Son of God. Jesus has the power to forgive sins and the power over death, the consequence of sin. He forgives sins. He gives us eternal life in his glorious kingdom. We only need to respond, as Mary did, with our "Yes."

He gives us an undeserved gift, and invites us to participate in the divine life with him through our baptism. It is through grace and by faith that we can enter into this life with him, as we are supported by the community of believers, our Church. Jesus wants us to live our lives, right here and now, as children of the Resurrection. We have a hope that is so far beyond anything the world can offer, that it drives us to a life lived in love; not a love of the things of this world, but a powerful, Christ-centered, eternal love that can only come from God himself.

Love rejoices in Christ who is present in his followers and in all of creation, and today creation celebrates his Resurrection. We who call ourselves Christian are called to live our lives on earth in the presence of the Resurrected Jesus. We are to be people of the Resurrection, which means our lives should reflect that we have died with Christ in the waters of baptism, when we ourselves received the light of Christ. It is this light that brings hope to our world. It is this light that should shine forth from each of us, as do the rays of the sun in the sky above. This light of Christ is present in our love for God and neighbor as we recognize his holy presence in each other, as we see that we are all created in his likeness and image and each possess our own God-given dignity.

We are on this journey together, and so we worship together as a community of believers, a people of faith, with hope in the Resurrection, as we journey through this life in love together. Our lives should reflect our belief in the Resurrection, or we are fooling ourselves. Today, we are reminded to live our lives in the Resurrection of Christ, to let his light shine through us.

So let's take time today to examine whether our lives, and how we live them, truly reflect the presence of the Resurrected Christ. Do we see him in ourselves? Do we see him in others? Do we love others, our family, friends, and neighbors, as he loved us? What is preventing us? He is already raised and seated at the Right Hand of God. There is nothing to fear. We are called to this same fulfillment.

Deacon Rodney

Semana Santa 2017

Domingo de Ramos

Es una oportunidad para proclamar a Jesús como Rey y Centro de nuestras vidas. Debemos parecernos a esa gente de Jerusalén que se entusiasmó por seguir a Cristo. Decir "que viva mi Cristo, que viva mi rey..." Es un día en el que le podemos decir a Cristo que nosotros también queremos seguirlo, aunque tengamos que sufrir o morir por Él. Que queremos que sea el rey de nuestra vida, de nuestra familia, de nuestra patria y del mundo entero. Queremos que sea nuestro amigo en todos los momentos de nuestra vida.

Jueves Santo

Este día recordamos la Última Cena de Jesús con sus apóstoles en la que les lavó los pies dándonos un ejemplo de servicialidad. En la Última Cena, Jesús se quedó con nosotros en el pan y en el vino, nos dejó su cuerpo y su sangre. Es el jueves santo cuando instituyó la Eucaristía y el Sacerdocio. Al terminar la última cena, Jesús se fue a orar al Huerto de los Olivos. Ahí pasó toda la noche y después de mucho tiempo de oración, llegaron a aprehenderlo.

Viernes Santo

¿Cómo podemos vivir este día? Este día manda la Iglesia guardar el ayuno y la abstinencia. Se acostumbra rezar el Vía Crucis y meditar en las Siete Palabras de Jesús en la cruz. Se participa en la Liturgia de Adoración a la Cruz con mucho amor, respeto y devoción. Se trata de acompañar a Jesús en su sufrimiento. A las tres de la tarde, recordamos la crucifixión de Jesús rezando el Credo.

Sábado Santo

Es el día de la ausencia. El Esposo nos ha sido arrebatado. Día de dolor, de reposo, de esperanza, de soledad. El mismo Cristo está callado. Él, que es el Verbo, la Palabra, está callado. Después de su último grito de la cruz "¿por qué me has abandonado"?- ahora él calla en el sepulcro. Descansa: "consummatum est", "todo se ha cumplido".
