Sacramental Information

Baptisms: Congratulations on the decision to baptize your child in the Catholic Faith! We are here to help you with the process. Please call or stop by the parish office and we will be happy to get you started. Travel plans for out of town guests should not be made until a date for the baptism is confirmed by the parish staff. A meeting with a priest may be required. We look forward to hearing from you.

Marriages: Please come by the parish office to start your marriage paperwork. Please allow six months to complete the paperwork. A wedding date cannot be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: We are blessed to have a group of volunteers in our parish who are happy to bring Holy Communion to the sick, the hospitalized and the homebound. Please call the parish office to make arrangements. If you or your loved one would like for a priest to visit with the Sacrament of Anointing, please do not hesitate to call us.

Deacon's Corner

The Christmas season began for me this year with the question: "Who is the King of Glory?" from the song The King of Glory. The season ends today with the question of the Magi: "Where is the new-born king of the Jews?," from Matthew Gospel. I like to answer these two questions for myself by re-reading the poem: One Solitary Life, which I now share with you.

He was born in an obscure village,
the child of a peasant woman.
He worked in a carpentry shop until he was thirty, and then for three years he was an itinerant preacher.

When the tide of popular opinion turned against him,
his friends ran away.
He was turned over to his enemies.
He was tried and convicted.
He was nailed upon a cross between two thieves.
When he was dead, he was laid in a borrowed grave.

He never wrote a book
He never held an office
He never owned a home.
He never went to college.
He never travelled more than 200 miles from the place where he was born.
He never did one of the things that usually accompanies greatness.

Yet all the armies that ever marched,
and all the governments that ever sat,
and all the kings that ever reigned,
have not affected life upon this earth as powerfully as has that One Solitary Life. - (author unknown)

Jesus is our King! May we always do him homage.

Deacon Steve

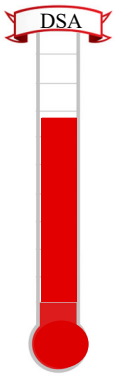

Thank you for a great year! Thank you for joining us each week as we celebrate Mass. Thank you for all you do for our parish and being part of our awesome parish family. Thank you for participating in our Offertory Increase Program and thank you for supporting our pavilion makeover project. The Pilgrim Virgin Statue of
OUR LADY OF FATIMA

Will be presented at the South Florida Fair, January 12 – January 28, 2018

While you are enjoying time at the South Florida Fair we invite you to stop and pay homage to Our Lady of Fatima, Building 10, Space 33 (immediately next to our Right to Life Booth). A beautiful life size hand carved statue made in Fatima and blessed by Bishop John Venancio of Fatima will be on display.

Volunteers are needed to help staff the booth as an effort to evangelize our Catholic faith and to spread devotion to Our Blessed Mother. Please call Tom and Charlene Sherry: 561-308-7426 or email: pgachar@bellsouth.net

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. 1 Peter 4:10

La Epifanía del Señor (6 de enero)

Con un lenguaje muy poético, el profeta Isaías anuncia la alegría de la salvación, la vuelta de los desterrados, una salvación universal centrada en Jerusalén, sobre la cual brilla una luz. San Pablo en su carta a los Efesios, nos manifiesta la universalidad de la salvación que el niño recién nacido trae para el hombre; no solo para el pueblo judío, sino también para nosotros. San Mateo nos cuenta el episodio de los reyes magos, esos personajes que vienen desde lejos, obedientes a una intuición misteriosa, llegan hasta Jesús, lo reconocen como el enviado de Dios y "cayendo de rodillas, lo adoran".
