Deacon's Corner…. Deacon Steve
SUNDAY READINGS: Acts 4:32-35; 1 John 5:1-6; John 20:19-31

"Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." (Jn 20: 19-31)

Originally the wounds of Christ had been a sign of the tragedy and pain of the crucifixion, after the Resurrection they become a sign of triumph and power over physical death as well as spiritual death - sin. When Jesus invites Thomas to touch his wounds, he is allowing Thomas to experience this reality for himself. Thomas doesn't just look at the nail marks; he personally encounters them. And then, he believes.

This is a powerful image for the mercy of Christ. The suffering he endured on the cross was not just a distant symbol for us to admire. The fact that Jesus suffered for us means that our suffering now has somewhere to go. Our pain, our battle with sin, our struggle to truly believe in him, all of this can be laid within the wounds of Christ and healed. When we unite our own wounds to those of Christ, when we allow ourselves to encounter the wounded but glorified Christ, we are able to move beyond our own troubles. We get to share in the victory and truly to experience his peace.

On this Divine Mercy Sunday we need to remember that Jesus brings peace in the face of our fears, our pain, and yes, our doubts. His mercy knows no limits.

Deacon Steve

Memorialize Your Loved Ones

MEMORIAL LIGHTS

Our Memorial Lights are now available to remember your loved ones. As a new tradition, we always light a light for 30 days when one of our parishioners passes away. If you are interested in "Lighting a Light" for a loved one, please ask an usher for a brochure, call the office for more information, or visit the website where you can find the information you need.

SACRAMENTAL INFORMATION

Baptisms: Baptisms are celebrated twice each month. You need to come into the parish office to register for class. Ideally, preparation should begin during pregnancy. No confirmed dates are given before approval by the priest. In order to avoid disappointments, do not book travel plans with family, godparents, etc., until a confirmed date has been assigned at the conclusion of all stages of preparation. Parents needing annulments of marriages, or those not married, or those not married in the Church, will be assisted in addressing those issues before receiving a Baptismal date.

Marriages: You must be a registered and a supporting member of the parish for at least six months prior to your marriage. The date should not be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: Please call the parish office to inform us of anyone hospitalized, homebound, or in need of the Sacraments.

RCIA

Do you know anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, and possibly becoming a Catholic? Invite them to attend!

RCIA (The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a process whereby an individual becomes a full member of the Catholic Church. Those making this journey come from a variety of backgrounds: some have been baptized, some haven't; some come from other Christian churches or religious beliefs, and others may be Catholics who have decided to complete their initiation into the Church. Whatever their background, all are experiencing the call of God and share a common spiritual journey. Initiation into the Church takes place at the Easter Vigil.

The 2015/16 RCIA starts with the Inquiry Phase, which begins Tuesday, May 19; 7:30 - 9:30 PM.

1759 Indian Creek Parkway, Jupiter, FL 33458

Find answers to these questions and more:

WHEN do I start talking to my children about virtuous living and authentic love?

… WHAT should I say?

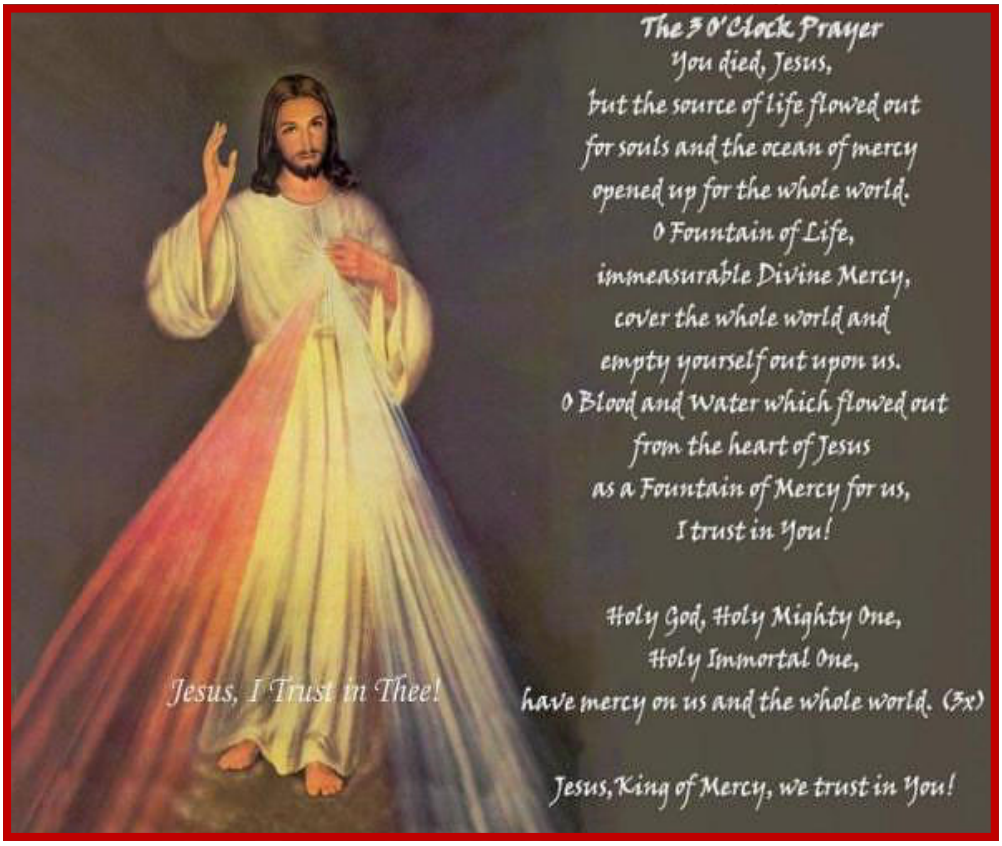

… HOW do I let my children know that they are made in the image of God with inherent dignity?

… WHERE do I begin to teach them that their bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit?

Leading & Loving, from Family Honor, Inc., is based on 25 years of field experience to help answer these questions and more. This new adult-only program is a unique Catholic approach to help you become more confident and prepared to raise virtuous children. Leading & Loving is perfect for parents or guardians of children from infancy to 11 years of age.

SEATING IS LIMITED. Registration fee is $35 per family.
Reservations must be received by Friday, June 5, 2015.
