Sacramental Information

Baptisms: Congratulations on the decision to baptize your child in the Catholic Faith! We are here to help you with the process. Please call or stop by the parish office and we will be happy to get you started. Travel plans for out of town guests should not be made until a date for the baptism is confirmed by the parish staff. A meeting with a priest may be required. We look forward to hearing from you.

Marriages: Please come by the parish office to start your marriage paperwork. Please allow six months to complete the paperwork. A wedding date cannot be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: We are blessed to have a group of volunteers in our parish who are happy to bring Holy Communion to the sick, the hospitalized and the homebound. Please call the parish office to make arrangements. If you or your loved one would like for a priest to visit with the Sacrament of Anointing, please do not hesitate to call us.

All Souls' Day

Along with the All Soul's Day memorial pictures, this year we will add the opportunity to purchase personalized memorial candles. The cost will be $5.00. We will put only one name on the candle. It can be The Jones Family or just Pat Jones. After Mass you will be able to take the candle with you to light for a week in their memory.

ORDER FORM FOR ALL SOULS' DAY CANDLE

Enclose $5.00 along with the name you want on the candle. Orders need to be in by October 29.

Deacon's Corner

Today's Gospel reminds us that we are members of God's kingdom and citizens of the country in which we live, with obligations to both. As Catholic Christians we are not only members of the Church, but also members of society. Tensions can exist between our loyalty to God and our duty to our country especially when political questions touch upon faith and morality.

Religion and politics do mix and overlap, so crucial issues of conscience do emerge. In these instances we must put God and His laws first even if it brings us into conflict with the state. We are obliged to bring the gospel of Jesus Christ into every aspect of our life. We are chosen to be the saving hands of Christ and are called to spread the good news in different ways, and on many levels.

We must all show a proper interest in the well-being of our society. Living in an imperfect world highlights the need for Catholic women and men not to be afraid to express their allegiance to God in social and religious affairs. Our vision of God's kingdom may point out spiritual values which others fail to take into account.

Prayer For Protection Against Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen. Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

Sunday Experience...

Did you see all those pumpkins? So much is going on at our parish. Last weekend was Commitment Weekend and many of you participated. We also had our Festival Basket Raffle folks out in the pavilion seeking gift baskets for the raffle again this weekend as the Festival is only a few weeks away! Then there was the following group who emptied the truck on Saturday and put out all those pumpkins! Stop by the Patch...you will be glad you did!

Our staff member available this week in the pavilion will be Jim Duemig.

Now these three remain:

Faith, Hope and Love.

But the greatest of these is Love

Thank you to all parishioners who have completed and submitted their Commitment Card to the church. For those parishioners who have not yet had the opportunity to submit their card, a letter will be mailed to you with a personalized Commitment Card. It is important that all parishioners complete a Commitment Card as we will be mailing out a Summary Report of the program and need all commitments accounted for in this report. If you have any questions, please contact the church office. We also encourage all parishioners to consider our electronic giving method and to setup your reoccurring offertory gifts electronically.

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. 1 Peter 4:10

XXIX Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (21 de octubre)

Nosotros pertenecemos a la Iglesia, pero al mismo tiempo formamos parte de la sociedad civil. Como cristianos no podemos separar nuestra condición de cristiano de nuestra condición de ciudadanos, pero tampoco debemos confundirlas. Debemos saber ser justos y saber discernir. Solamente dando al César lo que es del César y a Dios lo que pertenece a Dios es posible celebrar la Eucaristía, sacramento de unidad.

XXX Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (29 de octubre)

Primera lectura: Éxodo 22, 20-26

Segunda lectura: 1 Tesalonicenses 1, 5-10

ORACIÓN CONTRA HURACANES

Dios Padre nuestro, creador del Universo y Señor sobre toda la creación, humildemente nos ponemos ante ti como tus hijos y te pedimos que nos mantengas protegidos contra todos los huracanes que puedan azotarnos. Protégenos del miedo y la ansiedad de las tormentas y danos una ardiente fe y esperanza en tu amor y misericordia. Sólo tú brindas paz, calma y seguridad. Padre, nosotros te damos las gracias por anticipado, porque tú eres nuestro único refugio. Te lo pedimos por tu Hijo Jesucristo que vive y reina contigo y el Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios por los siglos de los siglos . Amén
