Sacramental Information

Baptisms: Congratulations on the decision to baptize your child in the Catholic Faith! We are here to help you with the process. Please call or stop by the parish office and we will be happy to get you started. Travel plans for out of town guests should not be made until a date for the baptism is confirmed by the parish staff. A meeting with a priest may be required. We look forward to hearing from you.

Marriages: Please come by the parish office to start your marriage paperwork. Please allow six months to complete the paperwork. A wedding date cannot be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: We are blessed to have a group of volunteers in our parish who are happy to bring Holy Communion to the sick, the hospitalized and the homebound. Please call the parish office to make arrangements. If you or your loved one would like for a priest to visit with the Sacrament of Anointing, please do not hesitate to call us.

The parish office will be closed on November 23rd and November 24th in observance of Thanksgiving.

Deacon's Corner

Today we hear the parable of the talents. We might wonder it's about work, productivity, and creativity, or is it simply about being open to God's grace? Perhaps the talents are actually the life of Jesus in our hearts. What do we do with that life? Do we allow Jesus to live and grow within us, or do we "bury" him and his grace?

The grace that each of us receives is God's gift to us. We all have the potential to be filled with the spirit of his love, but we have to allow that spirit to grow in us. We have to work on it. We have to give it our time and our best. We have to cooperate.

Most people do not live bad lives; they do not throw grace away, but they never let it become what Christ intended it to be. They keep it safe/buried; they do nothing to allow it to grow. They never come to the potential their life could have achieved had they taken out the talents, used them, and invested them in doing good.

We can't just return what we have received. Love is too dynamic and powerful. Its energy demands growth and new life. To bury and keep it safe misses the whole point of what our life is all about.

What Christ gives us is meant to multiply many times over. It is like the bread in the hands of Jesus. It is blessed and broken, and then it becomes food for the multitudes. It is the life-giving presence of Jesus that we are custodians of. His life, given to us as gift, must be shared with the world. The more we give away the more we have.

Deacon Steve

Prayer for Vocations

Father, you call each of us by name and ask us to follow you.

Bless your Church by raising up dedicated leaders from our families and friends in the Diocese of Palm Beach who will generously serve your people as sisters, brothers, deacons and priests.

Inspire us as we grow to know you, and open our hearts to hear your call.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord. Amen

2017 Fall Festival

Our Fall Festival was so much fun and very successful. I want to thank everyone who helped make our festival such a great success. Special thank you to Marianne Duemig and Sue Dolingo for once again co-chairing our Festival. Also thanks to the festival committee who work throughout the year ensuring the festival was a big success. Even through the rain, we had a great time. Thanks to all who volunteered and those who came out and enjoyed the festivities.

I also want to give a special shout out to Jerry Sullivan who, along with his team, recreated our pavilion and completed Phase I of our pavilion makeover. Thank you!

Now these three remain:

Faith, Hope and Love.

But the greatest of these is Love

Thank you to all who made your financial commitment to our parish. If you didn't get a chance to do so, please prayerfully consider your gift and return your commitment forms as soon as possible.

As of 11/2/17, we have received 1987 responses which represents a 14% response rate which is still below our expectations. Our increased commitments of $111,967 is great and we are prayerfully optimistic that many more parishioners will complete and return their commitments over the next several weeks.

Thanks again for all your support!

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. 1 Peter 4:10
