FESTIVAL 2016!

Veteran's Day Remembrance

Please join us Friday November 11th at 7:00 PM in the pavilion for our special Veteran's Day Presentation in remembrance of all our Veterans who proudly served to protect our freedom and safety.

It's Festival Week and we need more volunteers!

Please go to our website, stop by the tables in the pavilion, or call the parish office! We are short and we need help!
High School Students, we need help in Kid's Games. You can get Community Hours Credit!

Pumpkin Patch—Thank-You

Thank you to everyone who supported the pumpkin patch this year through volunteering at the patch or coming out and purchasing your pumpkins. Also thank you to those from Family Life Ministry who assisted us and a very strong thank you to Sheila and Andrew Fulkerson and their entire family. Your leadership, dedication and perseverance is exceptional and amazing. This year we sold over $26,000 in pumpkins! Best year ever!

SACRAMENTAL INFORMATION

Baptisms: Baptisms are celebrated twice each month. You need to come into the parish office to register for class. Ideally, preparation should begin during pregnancy. No confirmed dates are given before approval by the priest. In order to avoid disappointments, do not book travel plans with family, godparents, etc., until a confirmed date has been assigned at the conclusion of all stages of preparation. Parents needing annulments of marriages, or those not married, or those not married in the Church, will be assisted in addressing those issues before receiving a Baptismal date.

Marriages: You must be a registered and a supporting member of the parish for at least six months prior to your marriage. The date should not be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: Please call the parish office to inform us of anyone hospitalized, homebound, or in need of the Sacraments.

Deacon's Corner…. Deacon Rodney

SUNDAY READINGS: 2 Mc 7:1-2, 9-14; 2 Thes. 2:16-3:5; Lk. 20: 27-38

The Scripture readings today really engage our imagination: the brutality of Macabees; Paul's letter to the Thessalonians depicting God as a vigilant sentinel; and Luke's Gospel enticing us to visualize the resurrected life. All with different imagery, but one central theme: whatever we know of this life pales in comparison to the fullness of life in Christ that is promised to us in the resurrection. Scripture reminds us that our relationship with God is the reason for our existence. The resurrection is more than just something we hope or believe will happen upon our death. It represents the basis, promise and fulfillment of our relationship with God. The reading from Maccabees assures us we may be deprived of life in this world, but the Almighty One will raise us up to live forever. Yes, there will be suffering and death, events and experiences that will cause us horrible pain. But that is not the end of the story. No matter what the world throws at us, God is greater than it all. Therefore, God has the final say about our eternity - and He wants it to be, as Jesus says, where we are like angels; and are the children of God. We should take comfort in the words of Cardinal-Archbishop Basil Hume who said: "A priest started his homily at a funeral by saying, 'I am going to preach about judgment.' There was dismay in the congregation. But he went on: "Judgment is whispering into the ear of a merciful and compassionate God the story of my life...' It is a very great encouragement to think of being in the presence of God who is both merciful and full of compassion, because God knows me through and through and understands me far better than I could ever know and understand myself, or anyone else. Only He can truly make sense of my confused and rambling story." "The time will come for each of us to appear before our God to render an account of our lives. It will not be a frightening moment, unless to the bitter end we have turned away or consciously ignored Him. Instead it will be a moment of deliverance and peace when we can whisper into his merciful and compassionate ear the story of all our years, and be forgiven and made whole. "Praise God!!"

Office of
THE BISHOP

November 4, 2016

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

We are called to demonstrate Catholic social teaching and carry out Jesus' mission to "bring glad tidings to the poor . . . to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free" (Lk 4:18). The weekend of November 12 and 13 we will have the opportunity to be the voice of hope for those on the margins of society who experience the realities of living in poverty by assisting the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD).

The CCHD was founded by the U.S. bishops in an effort to break the cycle of poverty in our country by funding educational, community and vocational projects. This collection is the primary source of funding for CCHD's many anti-poverty education programs and grants.

Because of your prayers and financial generosity we are able to directly address the needs of those who so often feel lost or abandoned by society. Beyond charitable assistance, we seek to educate and empower the individual so that they can escape from the cycle of poverty. Thank you for all that you have done and continue to do to help our sisters and brothers in need.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Gerald M. Barbarito

La Misa.: La primera parte esencial de la Misa:

La Liturgia de la Palabra: Se lleva a cabo en el ambón. Es una de las partes más importantes de la Misa. En la Misa diaria, hay una sola lectura. Los domingos y días de fiestas hay dos lecturas, siendo la primera, generalmente, del Antiguo Testamento, la segunda, es tomada generalmente, de Hechos, Cartas, Nuevo Testamento. Entre la primera y la segunda, se recita el Salmo Responsorial, parte de canto y parte de meditación. En esta parte, los fieles permanecen sentados con una actitud de atención, para que la Palabra los alimente y fortalezca. Dios habla, hay que escuchar con veneración.
