SUNDAY READINGS: Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48; 1 John 4:7-10; John 5:9-17

At Rosa's Fresh Philadelphia, you can get a slice of pizza for a buck. You can also buy a slice for someone who is hungry and homeless. At this Pizzeria, donors give their dollar then write their donations on a post-it note. Anyone in need can come in, take on of the post-notes off the wall, and "redeem it" for a free slice.

Since pay-it-forward pizza began at Rosa's about a year ago, diners have bought more than 8,500 slices for their homeless neighbors. Thirty to forty homeless patrons come in every day and claim a slice; sometimes the homeless themselves pay for a slice for another homeless person.

Mason Wartman, 27, is a business school graduate who worked at a small Wall Street equities firm, until he decided he wanted to run his own business. He loved the dollar-a-slice concept at many New York pizzerias and wanted to bring it to his hometown. He named the pizzeria after his mother.

The notes written by donors include messages of support and hope, such as, "you can do it" or "You are a beautiful" or "Enjoy". And those who have enjoyed the free pizza leave their own messages: I just want to everyone that donated at Rosa's to know; it gave me a place to eat every day and the opportunity to get back on my feet. "I start a new job tomorrow."

Wartman welcomes every customer warmly, no matter if he or she is on the receiving or giving end of the pizza slice. "They deserve to eat in the store and enjoy the music as much as any other paying customer would."

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks us to love one another as he has loved us: to put others before ourselves; to honor and cherish others simply because they are sons and daughters of the God of mercy and compassion. What might we do to pay-it-forward for someone in our home, our neighborhood, our country, our world?

Deacon Steve

SACRAMENTAL INFORMATION

Baptisms: Baptisms are celebrated twice each month. You need to come into the parish office to register for class. Ideally, preparation should begin during pregnancy. No confirmed dates are given before approval by the priest. In order to avoid disappointments, do not book travel plans with family, godparents, etc., until a confirmed date has been assigned at the conclusion of all stages of preparation. Parents needing annulments of marriages, or those not married, or those not married in the Church, will be assisted in addressing those issues before receiving a Baptismal date.

Marriages: You must be a registered and a supporting member of the parish for at least six months prior to your marriage. The date should not be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: Please call the parish office to inform us of anyone hospitalized, homebound, or in need of the Sacraments.

RCIA

Do you know anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, and possibly becoming a Catholic?
Invite them to attend!

RCIA (The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a process whereby an individual becomes a full member of the Catholic Church. Those making this journey come from a variety of backgrounds: some have been baptized, some haven't; some come from other Christian churches or religious beliefs, and others may be Catholics who have decided to complete their initiation into the Church. Whatever their background, all are experiencing the call of God and share a common spiritual journey. Initiation into the Church takes place at the Easter Vigil.

The 2015/16 RCIA starts with the Inquiry Phase, which begins Tuesday, May 19; 7:30 - 9:30 PM.
