Our Lady Queen of the Apostles

Father's Day Prayer

Father,

It is Your Commandment that we should honor our fathers; hear the prayers we offer You for them.

Grant them many years on earth and keep them in health of mind and body.

Bless their word and all they do.

Give them back a hundred-fold whatever they have done for us.

Inspire them with Your love and help them to fulfill Your holy law.

One day, may we be their comfort and support, so that having enjoyed their affection on earth, we may have the joy of being with them forever in Your home in Heaven.

Through Christ our Lord,

Amen

Sacramental Information

Baptisms: Congratulations on the decision to baptize your child in the Catholic Faith! We are here to help you with the process. Please call or stop by the parish office and we will be happy to get you started. Travel plans for out of town guests should not be made until a date for the baptism is confirmed by the parish staff. A meeting with a priest may be required. We look forward to hearing from you.

Marriages: Please come by the parish office to start your marriage paperwork. Please allow six months to complete the paperwork. A wedding date cannot be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: We are blessed to have a group of volunteers in our parish who are happy to bring Holy Communion to the sick, the hospitalized and the homebound. Please call the parish office to make arrangements. If you or your loved one would like for a priest to visit with the Sacrament of Anointing, please do not hesitate to call us.

What Seeds are You Planting?

Today's Gospel presents us with parables of sowing seeds as a description of the Kingdom of God. Jesus uses parables to give us insight and understanding, and help us remember the teaching. This week's reflections comes from The Word for Every Season, by Dainne Bergant, and provides a deeper understanding into our understanding of how God's Kingdom unfolds in our world today.

"The seed that is scattered in the field and the mustard seed that is sown in the ground are very insignificant. However, they carry great potential within themselves. Their growth is not an overnight phenomenon, but when they do reach their full potential, overcoming all obstacles, the first yields a bountiful harvest and the second becomes the abode of the birds of the sky. Jesus employs these parables to describe the reign of God, the new way of living that he came to proclaim. This way of living begins in very ordinary circumstances with apparently insignificant acts. But these acts are pregnant with extraordinary potential, and this potential gradually matures until it has spread itself far and wide."

"Just as plant growth is imperceptible, so the development of the reign of God often escapes our awareness. In fact, as Paul tells us today, while we are living in this life, 'we walk by faith, not by sight.' We should not misunderstand."

"There is a definite difference between plant growth and the development of the reign of God. We may have to wait a long time, but eventually we will be able to see the plant's progress. On the other hand, time alone will not reveal the action of God in the world today. We need eyes of faith for that. But then if we have eyes of faith, we will recognize the reign of God struggling to be realized in our midst everywhere and at all times, and we will not have to wait for a culminating event."

"Where will we find the reign of God? Where should we look? We will find it unfolding in our homes whenever we are patient with or forgiving toward those with whom we live. We will recognize it in the helping hand extended to us at school or at work, in the gentle and healing touch of health caretakers, in the strong arm of those on whom we depend. We will appreciate it in the honesty with which financial or business transactions are conducted, in the willingness of others to provide for us in our need, in the courage of women and men who place themselves in harm's way for the sake of others. The reign of God is like an insignificant seed, overlooked by most, but cherished by those who know that it is brimming with potential."

May God give you peace and perseverance throughout this week as you continue sowing seeds of love, faith, and hope in your life and in the lives of those around you. This is how we cooperate to bring about God's Kingdom in our world today.

SUNDAY EXPERIENCE!

Did you join our parish in 2018?

If you are new to our parish in 2018, we would like to invite you to a Parish Tour and luncheon on July 1st. Please meet Jim at the Welcome Desk in the pavilion following the 9:45 Mass. We will begin the tour at 11:00 and end in Celebration Hall for a luncheon. If you plan to attend, please call the parish office at 798-5661 and let us know you will be joining us.

Please Cooperate with Parking Guidelines

We ask that you please do not park in the two drop-off circles at the entrances of the pavilion and never park in the pavilion or in the entrance to the pavilion. These are not only driveways to drop people off but also serves to give access to emergency vehicles. Thanks for your cooperation!

Prayer to Avert Hurricanes

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

CCW wishes to thank everyone for helping with "PENNIES FOR BABIES" A check was sent to BIRTHLINE /LIFELINE in our Diocese for $335.00.

XI Domingo Ordinario: Ser fiel a Cristo aunque me critiquen

Luz del mundo, sal de la tierra, levadura en la masa, grano de mostaza. Con éstas y otras comparaciones, Jesús quería indicar a sus seguidores que Él no tenía miedo a que fueran pocos, sino que lo que a Él le preocupaba era que fueran innecesarios, inútiles, inservibles. Hemos llegado a pensar que sólo influiremos en la sociedad cuando tengamos el poder o cuando seamos la mayoría. En cambio, el Señor tenía otra forma de ver las cosas. Nuestra influencia vendrá de nuestra capacidad de ser fieles a Cristo y a su mensaje. Sólo así seremos sal de la tierra. Sólo así nos convertiremos en una planta de mostaza, que a pesar de su pequeñez original da sombra a los que buscan guarecerse de las inclemencias del tiempo. Propósito: No dejarnos vencer por el relativismo. Aceptar las enseñanzas de la Iglesia, tanto cuando las entendemos como cuando no las comprendemos del todo o nos cuesta practicarlas.
