SACRAMENTAL INFORMATION

Baptisms: Congratulations on the decision to baptize your child in the Catholic Faith! We are here to help you with the process. Please call or stop by the parish office and we will be happy to get you started. Travel plans for out of town guests should not be made until a date for the baptism is confirmed by the parish staff. A meeting with a priest may be required. We look forward to hearing from you.

Marriages: Please come by the parish office to start your marriage paperwork. Please allow six months to complete the paperwork. A wedding date cannot be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: We are blessed to have a group of volunteers in our parish who are happy to bring Holy Communion to the sick, the hospitalized and the homebound. Please call the parish office to make arrangements. If you or your loved one would like for a priest to visit with the Sacrament of Anointing, please do not hesitate to call us.

The flowers at our altar are in memory of:

Mary Shaheen
By Frank
and
Robert W. Rudewick
By his wife Irene and his Family

Would you like to remember a special person or anniversary? Flowers for the altar are available for the month of August.

If you are interested, please contact the parish office.

The cost is $30.00

Take Time to Rest in God

One of the great promises of technology is that it will "save us time." Progress made in manufacturing, communication devices, computers, and the like, bring with them the hope of more efficiency and more free time. But the reality seems to be that we use these advances to cram more work into our week than anything else. Time Magazine, and others, recently reported on a study that showed most of us spend about 10 hours a day in front of a screen – that's about 60% of our waking hours! We have become a society that hasn't created any extra free time; rather, we've become slaves of technology, addicted to our computers, televisions, and cell phones. Like robots we respond to every vibration or beep, as our phones constantly remind us of their presence. And just think about the panic and anxiety we feel when we can't find them.

One of the reasons we've become so dependent is as a means of escape. We wish to escape from the difficulties of the day, and distract ourselves with practically anything; sometimes even with what is spiritually harmful (graphic adult content is viewed more than Netflix, Amazon, and Twitter, combined*). We cannot be surprised that our relationships suffer and that so many of us feel incredibly alone in our world of social media. We don't spend time with each other, really getting to know the Christ in each of us, because we are too busy on the net, or engaged in only superficial things on Facebook or Snapchat. And of course, our relationship with God likewise suffers.*

Today's Gospel, however, is asking us to reset ourselves. Jesus is telling us that he knows life is hard, and that we will labor and be heavily burdened. His solution – come to him. He says, come to me, learn from me, be meek and humble, and I will give you rest. Jesus is not speaking about a physical retreat from the world; he knows that what we really need is a spiritual renewal, a spiritual retreat, time with our Creator, so that we can be refreshed and renewed in his love. Jesus wants us so badly that he is willing to share our burdens, to suffer with us, and to renew us.

Listen to his words and hear him calling to you, once again, to be with him and experience his love for you. Perhaps beginning this week, commit to just 10 minutes a day, in silence*, without cell phone or computer,* in silence*, resting in Jesus. Find a quiet place. It could be a room in your house, the library, or even your (parked) car. Set an alarm, if it helps you not watch the clock, and just spend 10 minutes each day sitting with him – that's just about an hour per week. And if you're able to increase that amount in the passing weeks, great. If you already have committed* silent time with God, then merely add 10 minutes. Just 10 minutes, without any screen in your face or sound bombarding your senses. Start simply and slowly, and allow the healing presence of Jesus, his comfort, and his peace to begin working in you, each and every day. God bless.

The OLQA Youth Group will be having a bake sale after all Masses this weekend. Please help support this program by stopping by and purchasing some goodies.

We are in need of baskets for our Welcoming Committee. If you have any baskets that you would like to donate please drop them by the parish office. Thank you!!

Angel Bed Ministry

What is an Angel Bed and how should I help?

When someone loses a baby, whether by miscarriage or infant death, they are overcome with grief. The Angel Bed Ministry helps to alleviate the financial burden of the burial. We build and donate caskets (Angel Beds) to help these families.

Is God calling you to help?

WE NEED YOU!

If you are interested in helping, please call Angie DiLeonardo at 561-791-2914

Prayer For Protection Against Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen. Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

THE BISHOP

June 30, 2017

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Founded by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in 1943, Catholic Relief Services (CRS), is the official humanitarian aid agency of the U.S. Catholic church and has assisted over 130 million people around the world. Because of your generosity, services such as combating human trafficking, educating poor children, assisting with refugees fleeing civil conflict and constructing wells for drinking water, are made possible.

Every July our Diocese conducts the Catholic Relief Services (CRS) special collection which funds six Catholic agencies around the world that provide much needed support to our sisters and brothers around the world. Coupled with the CRS Rice Bowl program carried out in many parochial schools and parishes in the nation this annual collection provides vital financial resources for programs and humanitarian assistance.

On July 8 and 9, your support of the CRS special collection will help fund programs that serve men, women and children of every ethnic and religious affiliation around the world. Your gift allows CRS to extend the gentle embrace of Christ to those in need of assistance. Thank you for your prayerful and financial participation in this vital outreach.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Gerald M. Barbarito
